With hits like "Uneasy Rider" and "The Devil Went to Georgia," the Charlie Daniels Band has been a Grammy and Academy of Country Music Award winning icon on the country rock scene for nearly sixty years. He has co-written songs for legendary artists including; Bob Dylan, Johnny Cash and Elvis Presley and continues to entertain his audiences nationwide.

The Marshall Tucker Band had their first gold record in 1972 —their first of seven consecutive gold and platinum albums with songs including, "Heard It in a Love Song" and "Can't You See." Their cool country rock sound is played regularly on country, rock and alternative radio stations.

Honored by the Country Music Association for songwriting, Gary U.S. Bonds has been an popular rhythm, blues and rock and roll singer since 1960 when he recorded his first big hit, "New Orleans", followed by "Quarter To Three" and "This Little Girl" in 1981. He has worked with Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band, Johnny Paycheck and many others.
